Romantic love can be joyous and painful. Right now you are more tuned into the pain, rather than the joy. If you have a lover, fiancé or spouse then they are likely to be hurting you in some way. It is likely that they are not as committed as you would like and this is confusing you. You may simply need to wait until your loved one can settle down. On the other hand you may have to let go and accept that the relationship is going nowhere. If you are single, you could become focused on finding someone to share your life. It is possible that your feelings for someone are strong but are not returned. Whether you are in a relationship or not, there is a danger that you could become quite obsessed with the objects of your affections right now. Displaying your emotions will get you nowhere. It would be better if you were able to change the focus of your attention. You need to nurture yourself and share pleasurable times with your friends and family, knowing that someone better is waiting in the wings. You may also benefit from following a passionate past time, particularly one involving the arts, fashion or beauty. It is not time for recriminations, but rather time to gain a greater understanding of the type of relationship that is
